UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Death List at and Near Brinkley Put at Forty-Two.

Brinkley, Ark., March 10.—Twenty-nine persons dead and seventy-four injured is the Brinkley casualty list as the result of the tornado.

Governor Donaghey, who arrived from Little Rock, declared martial law and placed the situation in the hands of the sheriff. All of the dead and injured were properly cared for and large forces of men are at work clearing away the wreckage. One hundred convicts from the penitentiary were brought to assist in the work. Citizens have expressed a determination to rebuild the town at once.

Meetings were held at Little Rock, Memphis, Helena and other cities for the purpose of raising money and supplies for the destitute.

The storm which wrought such havoc at Brinkley apparently entered the state from the southwest and swept over eleven counties to the northeast.

Outside of Brinkley thirteen persons were killed and forty-six injured, several of whom may not recover.

Drops Dead Working.

Waco, March 10.—R. W. Simpson fell dead while working in the suburbs. He leaves a widow and nine children.

SIX VICTIMS OF WIND.

Dozen Business Houses Demolished Also.

CUTHBERT, GA., STRICKEN

Number of Persons Attending a Revival Meeting in Church Some Distance Return Home to Find Their Residences Rendered Uninhabitable.

Cuthbert, Ga., March 10.—Half a dozen negroes were killed here by a tornado and a dozen business buildings almost totally destroyed. The tornado also tore off corners and made fantastic mutilations on many buildings. Several white persons were injured, but so far as known none seriously.

A revival meeting was in progress during the tornado, which passed some distance from the church, whose occupants mistook the storm roar for thunder and remained in the church throughout the passage of the "twister." Later many worshippers went home under clearing skies to find their residences or those of their friends uninhabitable, with here and there a house was pulled to pieces almost as completely as if some carpenter had taken it apart board by board. The greater part of the destruction was confined to the negro quarters. The total loss will probably reach $100,000. Cuthbert has 2,500 inhabitants.

HALF IS SOLD.

Fifty Per Cent of the Output Is in Tanks at Tulsa.

Tulsa, Okla., March 10.—With two refineries in this city, which will soon be in operation, and with the Richardson refinery at Sapulpa and the Oklahoma and Muskogee refineries doing their part, Oklahoma oil producers have come to the conclusion that the refineries are soon to become an important factor in solving the problem of overproduction in the Oklahoma oil fields. The daily production here is now in excess of 100,000 barrels. Of this, at present but little over half is being marketed, the remainder going into tanks. Forty million barrels of oil are standing in stock in the Oklahoma oil fields at present, while almost every week new pools of oil are being discovered.

Husband Has Preacher Arrested. Atlanta, March 10.—Rev. Charles Wolfram, ordained as a minister of the Holiness faith, was arrested charged with alienating the affections of Mrs. M. P. Lockart. Complaint was made by Mrs. Lockhart's husband.

AMERICAN-JAP ALLIANCE.

Daughter of Episcopal Minister and Son of Late Aoki to Wed.

San Francisco, March 10.—The engagement of Miss Helen Gladys Emery, daughter of Rev. John A. Emery, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of California, to Cungrio Aoki, son of the late General Aoki of Japan, has been announced. Both Miss Emery and his mother admit the engagement, but they refuse to give the date of the wedding, which must take place outside this state, where the marriage of orientals and Caucasians is forbidden.

Aoki is a member of one of the most distinguished Japanese families and is said to be a relative of Viscount Aoki, who represented his country at Washington. He is a brother of Rev. C. Aoki, who has charge of the Episcopal Japanese mission in this city.

Through the efforts of the latter Cungrio Aoki was taken into the country home of Emery's at Corte Madera to learn Christianity and it was there he met Miss Emery.

The prospective bridegroom is engaged in the commission business.

RACE RIOT RAGES.

Russians and Armenians Fiercely Fight Upon Neutral Soil.

Los Angeles, March 10.—A Russian-Armenian race war in Los Angeles broke out and resulted in a pitched battle, participated in by about fifty men and women of the two races near the Salt Lake City railway depot. One Armenian may die and two others are in a hospital, while several Russians were badly used up. ePter Vazeraian was hit on the head by a brick and his skull fractured.

The feud has been in an acute stage for two weeks and fights have been occurring nightly. The Armenians claim that the Russians are always the aggressors. The fight was precipitated when a number of the Armenians were on their way to the station to bid good-bye to several fellow countrymen who were returning to Europe. The Russians attacked the procession and a fight followed. The Armenians were outnumbered and badly worsted.

FIVE DROWN.

Heaviest Rain at Montgomery For the Past Twenty Years.

Montgomery, Ala., March 10.—Five persons drowned Wednesday in the Alabama river here owing to the rising waters, which followed Tuesday night's storm. Three whites and a negro drowned from the ferry and William Dillard, a boy, while playing near the river bank, fell in and was drowned. The rain was the heaviest here in twenty years.

BRILLIANT CHURCH WEDDING.

Popular Bryan Girl Goes to Grace
Hillsboro Social Circles.

At the First Methodist church in this city on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, was solemnized the marriage ceremony of Miss Loula Coulter to Mr. Walter Franklin Hoppess of Hillsboro, in the presence of hundreds of invited friends who crowded the large auditorium and Sunday school room of the church building.

These friends came with loving good wishes in their every heart, and their sincerity and interest seemed to throw a halo of radiant beauty over the scene, and to breathe a prayer of benediction upon the lives of the newly wedded pair. Since childhood the bride has lived among these same friends, and every day, by some loving act or word she has endeared herself to all, and at this time when her nuptial vows were to be spoken, these friends delighted to come and join in her happiness and to assure and prove the warm friendship of their hearts.

The Methodist church, where since babyhood she has been a faithful Christian worker, was a fitting place to seal the vows of love and marriage and was a fitting climax to a life of loving kindness in her old home. Loving hands had wrought wondrous beauty around the altar, and woven garlands of bridal purity to grace the scene. Palms and ferns in artistic profusion formed a back ground for the elaborate decoration of "green and white." A graceful arch of smylax and Easter lillies encircled the altar, and suspended by streamers of tulle a floral basket of bride roses and ferns hung over the heads of the participants in the sacred ceremony.

The great pipe organ was presided at by Mrs. Robert S. Webb, and a splendid musical program given by this gifted musician, while the audience was assembling.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Webb Howell sang "Because I Love You," and the wedding marches were played by Mrs. H. C. Conway.

The ceremony was solemnized by Bishop Joseph Key of Sherman, assisted by the beloved pastor of the church, Rev. T. H. Morris.

The bridal party came to the altar in the following order: Ushers—Messrs. James W. James and Wilson Bradley; Miss Allie Conway, bridesmaid; Mr. Walter Coulter, Groomsman; Miss Frances Chance, maid of honor; Little Misses Helen Coulter and Ona Astin, flower girls. The bride came slowly down the aisle with her father, Mr. J. W. Coulter and was met at the altar by the groom, Mr. W. F. Hoppess, and his best man, Mr. O. Y. Brown of Hillsboro.

The bridal robe was of rich white messaline with real lace trimmings—the lace being the handiwork of the bride's sister, Mrs. Malcolm Carnes, to trim her own bridal dress.

The veil of filmy tulle was adjusted at the coiffure with sprays of lillies of the valley, and fell in billowy whiteness to the length of the long train of shimmering satin. Her only jewels were the elegant diamond bar pin, presented by the groom. A bride's bouquet of white sweet peas and lillies of the valley, completed the elegant and beautiful toilette.

The brides maids wore white crepe de chine, and carried bunches of white carnations; the maid of honor carried bride roses and ferns.

On account of a recent sad bereavement, no formal reception was given, only the bridal party and those who assisted in decorating at the church and at the home were invited to the house to meet the bride and groom after the ceremony. The spacious reception halls, library, parlor and dining room were open to the guests, and the same pretty motif of "green and white" was here emphasized with a wealth of white carnations, maline and green ribbons. Around a brimming punch bowl many toasts were said, for health, happiness and prosperity to the bride and groom, and congratulations were also freely given.

The many elegant wedding gifts were displayed in one room and were the admiration of all during the entire evening. A bride's book was provided, and each friend was glad to write a loving good wish for dear Loula and the man of her choice.

At 11 o'clock a refreshment plate of brick cream and heart shaped cake was handed, and just before time for the train which was to take the newly wedded pair on their bridal trip, lunch was served.

The bride's going away gown was a stylish coat suit of champagne silk, with hat, gloves and shoes of same shade.

The wedding trip will begin with a week's visit to friends in Houston, San Antonio and Galveston, and on Wednesday, March 17th, Mr. and Mrs. Hoppess will sail from Galveston on "The Denver" for New York City. During their honeymoon they will visit Niagara Falls, Washington City, Chicago and St. Louis, returning

Those who compose the decorating committees at the church and at the home, and who were entertained at the home with the bridal party were: Mesdames G. S. Parker, R. M. Gordon, Ed Hall, H. G. Rhodes, J. Allen Myers, E. H. Astin, C. M. Bethany and E. J. Kyle

King's Wedding Anniversary.

Special to Bryan Morning Eagle.

London, March 10.—Forty-six years ago today, in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, the beautiful princess Alexandra of Denmark became the bride of Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII. Owing to the absence of his Majesty in the south of France the wedding anniversary was allowed to pass without any formal observance. Numerous messages of congratulation, however, were sent to both the King and Queen.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra are now the oldest married pair among the crowned heads of Europe. It is almost impossible to believe that when they were married Lord Palmerston, now but a memory, was the great figure in the political life of Great Britain.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 2, 3 and 4, the Workers Conference will be held at the First Baptist church, at which leading men from abroad will be present. Dr. J. B. Gabrell of Dallas and Dr. J. M. Carroll of San Marcos will speak on Sunday, April 4th. The details of the program will be announced later.

Bought Grand Stand.

The Athletic Association of the A. and M. College has purchased the grand stand at the fair grounds and will remove the same to Kyle field at College. Contractor Jenkins has the contract to move it and will begin the work this morning.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 11, 1908.

Speaker Kennedy seems to be one of the few who understands "the way of a man with a maid."

The curriculum of the public high school should be such that the boy or girl can get into the payroll class the day after graduation.

The anti-racetrack gambling bill will soon become a law. We shall see now whether or not the existence of fairs depends on pool selling.

The American Sugar Refining company beat the government out of a lot of money by using false weights. That was a real low down thing to do.

Contrary to the general expectation the house committee to investigate the acts of Speaker Kennedy is developing some matters of great interest.

When the legislature meets in special session if any member is opposed to any of the platform demands don't fool away time holding his nose to the grindstone—shoot him full of holes.

A Dallas preacher last Sunday made the somewhat surprising assertion that women are more worldly than men. If this be true, it is time to become alarmed for the danger is great.

Texans are eating real Irish potatoes now—that is, potatoes grown in the soil of the Emerald Isle. Yet Texas has the capacity to supply not only the home market but to produce a large surplus for export.

The metropolitan dailies nearly all featured the reports that the president and the ex-president walked to church last Sunday. Pshaw! that's nothin'. Plenty of people right here in Bryan do that every Sunday.

In Texas the Prohibitionists are submissionists and most of the Anti-prohibitionists are anti-submissionists. In Arkansas the Prohibitionists are anti-submissionists and the Anti-prohibitionists are submissionists.

The proposition to substitute mules for calvary horses is not a new idea. Probably the first use of mules as a cavalry mount was by General William Walker, the famous filibuster, in Nicaragua, about fifty years ago.

Texas has some political troubles that are grievous to peace loving citizens, but it is a consolation to know that our afflictions are light as compared with those of the people of some other states—Tennessee for instance.

The governor's veto of the church bill was sustained. People in the rural districts will not for two years more at least have the pleasure of seeing the street parade and the animals marching two by two, the elephant and the kangaroo.

Preachers are infallible and, like other public men, may be fairly criticized when they make mistakes or go wrong, but indiscriminate sneering at them as a class is neither just nor sensible. There are, doubtless, unworthy preachers, but they are the exception. Most of them are good men, honestly and earnestly laboring for the salvation of souls and for the glory of God. The world owes an immense debt of gratitude to the preachers.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

WHAT THE LEGISLATORS AND SENATORS
ARE DOING FOR THEIR STATE AT AUSTIN.

Monday's Legislative Summary.

Killed by House—Board of health bill, by postponing until Saturday; differential bill, by refusing to take them up; bill reducing circus tax, by refusing to pass same over governor's veto.

Killed in Senate—Compulsory education bill, by refusing to order it not printed.

House orders further investigation of Speaker Kennedy's official acts. Recalls from senate local bills passed in a herd last week, and their night session to give same individual treatment. Engrossed bill requiring railroad companies to obtain sanction of railroad commission to move shops and offices. Finally passed bills giving wholesale druggists in dry territory right to sell alcohol, giving commissioner of agriculture greater powers and dealing with tree diseases and estimate bill giving mechanics a lien for wages.

In the House.

The house, having gotten down to business Monday morning, Robertson of Bell sent up a resolution recalling from the senate a long list of bills, which, he explained, included those "railroaded" through on last local bill night.

Ray offered a substitute which contained practically the same bills with some exceptions. Action was deferred until the two lists could be checked over and an agreement reached on one.

Reedy sent up a resolution enlarging the powers of the Kennedy investigation committee.

Cable offered a substitute requiring the committee to submit a report by 10 o'clock p. m., March 8. The substitute was withdrawn and the Reedy resolution was adopted.

Hill, chairman of the investigation committee, appeared on the floor of the house and asked for further time for the committee to submit its report, stating that there were a number of witnesses from out of town the committee desired to examine.

On motion of Cable, the committee was given until Wednesday at 3 p. m. to make a report.

Governor Signed Three Bills.

Governor Campbell Monday signed the following bills: Corsicana city charter bill; deficiency appropriation bill; Fate independent school district bill.

Austin, Tex.—Mr. Fuller rose to a point of personal privilege in the house Saturday.

Mr. Fuller denounced as corrupt as hell itself some of the newspapers of Texas. He held in his hand a newspaper from which he quoted an article regarding his (Fuller's) attempt to have the action of the house in adopting the sine die adjournment resolution reconsidered. He took particular exception to the statement that "Mr. Fuller took this action following a conference with the governor."

Mr. Fuller did not name the paper from which he read the article or the paper or papers which he was denouncing. Instead he secured "some of the press of Texas" and gave the lie to the author of the article in question.

Mr. Lively moved to postpone consideration of the resolution until next Saturday at 8 p. m., carried.

The Westbrook amendment after reduction bill was finally passed.

The Pullen bill requiring railroad companies to maintain water closets at all stations was passed finally.

The Mayfield (senate) full-crow bill was considered. An amendment by Mr. Mobley striking out that section of the bill which provides certain exceptions to the full-crow law, was adopted. As amended the bill was finally passed.

The Terrell (Dexter) bill providing for the enlargement of the Southwestern Insane Asylum at San Antonio, the segregation of the consumptive insane of the state, and for the treatment of all consumptive insane of the state at the Southwestern Insane Asylum, was laid before the house.

The committee amendments, which reduce the appropriation from $250,000 to $125,000, the entire amount to be devoted to the construction of a consumptive sanitarium addition to the Southwestern Asylum, were adopted.

Mr. Adams said he was informed by the chairman of the appropriations committee that if this passed its appropriation would be all the Southwestern Insane Asylum would get. He said he did not desire to curtail the appropriations of the asylum and would not like to see the bill passed if this would be its effect.

Mr. Reedy asked whether the chairman of the appropriations committee of the house should regulate appropriations. Mr. Adams said the house should do that, and he proposed to do his part; Mr. Reedy said he did, too.

In the Senate.

After roll call Monday Senator Senter offered a resolution asking the acceptance of a painting of former Lieutenant Governor Barnett Gibbs, as tendered by Mrs. Gibbs, and to hang same in an appropriate place in the capitol and that the resolution be laid on the table subject to call.

Murray offered a resolution providing that during this last week of the session members be recognized in consecutive order for the passage of bills, thus giving each member an opportunity to pass his measures. The resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mayfield, the house amendments to the full crew bill were not concurred in, and a free conference committee was appointed.

On motion of Ward, the house amendments to the bill regarding railroads to maintain the postoffice names for their stations were concurred in.

Thomas called up the railroad employees' experience bill by Meachum and Cofer, it being contended that the labor people favored the bill, which requires certain experience for railroad conductors, brakemen, etc. Senator Brachfield moved the adoption of the minority favorable report. The motion carried.

Meachum offered an amendment exempting railroads of twenty-five miles or less from the bill's provisions, the amendment being adopted.

The bill was then finally passed by a vote of 24 to 3.

Pure Food Bill Amended.

The senate committee on health favorably reported the house pure food bill Monday, but in shape not acceptable to the pure food commissioner. It cut out the provision prohibiting the use of caffeine and theine in drinks and the provision prohibiting the use of lime of sulphur in bleaching syrup.

Unlucky Thirteen.

Just thirteen, an unlucky number, supported the Johnson election rider to the Galveston saloon districting bill. By the overwhelming majority of 100 to 13 the house Monday set its death-dealing stamp of disapproval on the amendment. The bill then passed finally.

Fort Worth Charter Bill Passed.

The Fort Worth charter bill, recalled to the house Monday finally passed that body regularly and Monday night passed the senate. The boundary question is as agreed upon Saturday. The franchise provision remains as in the present charter.

Saturday's Legislative Summary.

Governor displeased over adjournment proposition. Serves notice that he will not submit matter of appropriations in special session until platform demands have been agreed upon. May submit constitutional convention proposition.

Every day to be suspension day in house.

House adopts free conference report on bill ordering penitentiary investigation; kills the proxy bill; finally passed senate full-crow bill with amendments; also bill providing for department of consumptives at Southwestern Insane Asylum, an amended bill exempting wholesale druggists from local option law.

Lively has his full bill postponed until next Saturday evening, which kills the senate bill in session, but its committee's daughter many bills.

Hubbard City Bonds.

The attorney general Saturday approved a bond issue for the city of Hubbard, amounting $15,000 in value. The bonds were sold for street and sewer work, mature in forty years, optional in ten, and bear ten per cent interest.

Signed by the Governor.

The executive signatures was Friday affixed to the following bills:

Ratifying the contract of lease between Galveston county and Santa Fe, Galveston city charter.

Supervisor independent school district bill.

Creating offense of attempted theft from person.

Longview and Seagoville independent school bills.

Exempting Clay county from county auditor provisions.

Senter's Bill Unfavorably Reported.

The bill by Senator Senter giving the Dallas municipal court concurrent jurisdiction with the county court at law was reported unfavorably by the house committee on municipal corporations Friday.

Bill Signed by Governor.

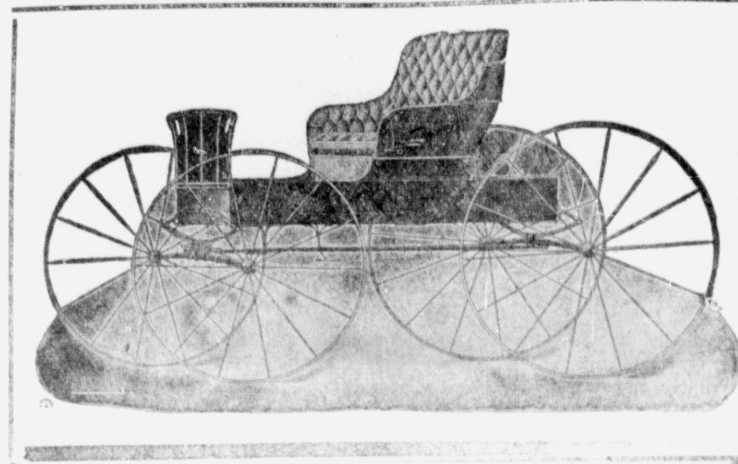

Austin, Tex.—Governor Thursday signed the bill by Senator Cofer providing a means for collecting back taxes in towns that have surrendered their corporate existence.

WILL ADDRESS FARMERS.

The Eagle is a dyed in the wool advocate of diversification, but as our farmers are sticking to cotton they should so cultivate as to make every acre produce every pound possible, and we believe the present method of raising cotton can be greatly improved.

Many farmers are too much inclined to pursue the same methods followed by our fathers, when the changed conditions make a change in methods absolutely necessary. We cannot raise cotton with present methods in competition with north and west Texas. It is up to every farmer in Brazos county to take advantage of every opportunity possible to gain all the knowledge he can, not only on raising cotton, but all other subjects.

Mr. J. L. Quicksall, state agent for the U. S. government farm demonstration work, will speak at the court house in this city at 2 p. m., Wednesday March 24, on cotton raising, and it will be an opportunity that none should miss.

ROTATION RECOGNITION.

By This Method the Senate Does Much Business.

Austin, March 10.—The senate Wednesday morning kept up the program of recognizing each senator in rotation for the constitutional bills and in consequence considerable business was disposed of.

Senator Watson secured final passage of his insurance bill, which revises the insurance laws of the state and makes plain some provisions over which heretofore there has been doubt.

The senate adopted the concurrent resolution giving the formal assent of the legislature for accepting the Adams fund from the United States government and authorizing the agricultural and mechanical college to accept said fund.

It passed to engrossment the house bill exempting Bell county from the operation of the county auditor law.

Former Lieutenant Governor Neil was granted the privilege of the senate floor.

The Greenville and Beaumont charter bills were finally passed.

The bills debated at considerable length a motion by Moller to reconsider the vote by which Johnson's bill amending the charter of the city of Galveston requiring police officers to give bond of $1,000 each was Tuesday night passed finally, after winning his point the vote was reconsidered and the bill again placed on third reading.

Moller offered an amendment striking out the enacting clause, which was lost—51 to 45. The vote then being on the passage of the bill, finally the house reversed its previous action and killed the bill—52 to 42.

The house advanced to third reading senate bill creating independent school districts for Wichita Falls, Ballinger, Higgins, McLean, Venus, Grandview and Hereford.

The house advanced to third reading senate bills exempting certain counties from hunting in enclosed pastures law; exempting Karnes county from the hide and animal inspection law; conferring a civil and criminal jurisdiction upon the county court of Ochiltree county; amending charter of Austin.

Senate committee judiciary 1 reported favorably Johnson's "spider bill," which seeks to provide recovery of damages for defectively baled cotton. The committee amended bill by striking out the provision that it shall be lawful for a railroad to accept defectively baled cotton. Masterson gave notice of a minority report.

Flattering Condition.

Austin, March 10.—The state department of banking gave out a statement showing the financial condition of 323 state banks and forty-seven state bank and trust companies at the close of business Feb. 5. The statement shows these institutions are in a flattering condition, there being a total reserve of a little over 51 per cent of demand deposits. Individual deposits of these banks and trust companies aggregate $28,000,000. There has been an increase of over $4,000,000 in individual deposits from Nov. 27, 1908, to Feb. 5, 1909.

Exceeded Authority.

Austin, March 10.—When advised that the Arlington school trustees had made an ruling forbidding male students to call upon girls during and after school hours, including Sundays, State Superintendent Cousins declared the trustees exceeded their authority and could only make a ruling effective on the premises.

BIG SPRINGS' BIG BLAZE.

Fire in Business District Does a Great Amount of Damage.

Big Springs, Tex., March 10.—At an early hour Wednesday fire broke out in the business district, causing fully $100,000 loss. It started from a gasoline explosion in the Newborough block, consisting of some brick buildings, all owned by Mrs. Bawer. The entire block was destroyed. Two frame structures were also consumed.

BAILEY CALLS ON TAFT.

Texas Senator Declares Chief Executive a "Delightful Personality."

Washington, March 10.—Senator Bailey came to the White House Wednesday to pay a social call, the second in his life. He said: "I called simply to pay my respects to the president. He is a delightful personality."

Frost and Ice.

Dallas, March 10.—Following weather reports were received here Wednesday:

Paris—Heavy frost damaged early fruit.

Barstow—Cold wave killed three-fourths of peach crop.

Denton—Heavy frost and ice killed unprotected truck gardens.

Denison—Ice formed here. Nurserymen say fruit is damaged. Crop will be short.

Three Buildings Gutted.

Arlington, March 10.—Three business establishments were gutted by fire, entailing a loss of $25,000. Fire apparatus was sent from Fort Worth, arriving in eleven minutes.

The fire originated in Lampkher's restaurant. Other losses are Luttrell Bros., People's Lumber company and Woodmen of the World.

Five Years For Homan.

Fort Worth, March 10.—Lefwich Homan, formerly collector for the First National bank, charged with abstracting money and jewels from the bank to the amount of nearly $30,000, pleaded guilty before Judge Buck and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary.

Expires Bathing.

Pittsburg, March 10.—While bathing in a tub George Morstman died.

DECEMBER AND MAY.

Bridge Twenty-One Years Old, Groom Is Eighty-Three.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 10.—December and May wedded at Santa Monica, Cal., in the persons of Mrs. Siecta Hawkins, twenty-one years old, and Varnum Wescott, eighty-three years of age.

Wescott is an inmate of the soldiers' home at Sawtelle and so is Mrs. Wescott's father. For some time the aged veteran had courted the pretty woman whom he married. Although nearly four times the age of his bride, Wescott is exceedingly active and enjoys robust health.

Fortunate Mistake.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 10.—Rosa Cohen, an eight year old girl, is convalescing in the Harrisburg hospital after having been operated on for appendicitis by mistake. The child and her eleven year old brother were sent to the institution suffering with enlarged tonsils. In some unexplained manner the girl was given an anesthetic and her appendix was taken out. The doctors say that the appendix was somewhat inflamed and they did not discover their mistake until the parents called. The humorous feature of the case is the assertion that the condition of the little girl's appendix showed that she would have developed appendicitis any way and that the operation, therefore, was a fortunate mistake.

Large Casket Required.

Elkins, W. Va., March 10.—The largest casket ever handled in Pocahontas county was that specially made for Lou Draper, a negro, weighing 447 pounds, who died at Marlinton. It was 6 feet long, 35 inches wide and 23 inches deep.

Prepared for transportation, the casket and body, shipped to Covington, Va., weighed 800 pounds. Ten men were used to carry the casket and a door had to be widened to get it out of the house.

Much Corn Shipped.

Minco, Okla., March 10.—Records of the shipment of corn from this station during the past season show that more than 350,000 bushels of corn were sent away from here. Practically every bushel of this corn sold for 51 cents and more than $175,000 was thereby distributed among the farmers of the immediate vicinity.

Defeated by One Vote.

Lincoln, Neb., March 10.—The senate by the close vote of 17 to 16 defeated the Miller bill providing for county option in the regulation of the liquor traffic. A similar bill is pending in the house.

In Husband's Favor.

Edinburgh, March 10.—The sensational Stirling-Cross divorce suits here have been decided by Lord Guthrie, who granted the husband's petition, awarded him the custody of his children and denied the cross petition of Mrs. Stirling.

Railroad Contract Let.

St. Louis, March 10.—Contract was let to Johnson construction company of St. Elmo, Ill., to build a railroad from Acme, Okla., through Quanah, to Paducah, Tex. The line is to be fifty miles long. Construction begins immediately. St. Louis capitalists are backing the enterprise.

Body Identified.

Fort Worth, March 10.—The body of a white man was found near Medicine mills with his throat slashed, and was identified as that of Jesse Cole, a former employee of the mills. The police believe he was murdered and are investigating clues.

Must Answer Horrible Charge.

Seguin, Tex., March 10.—Justice Perron, acting coroner, held that Donald Hill, a negro convict, met his death from a whipping. Three white men were arrested and put under bond. It is alleged one sat upon the negro's head while the others lashed him to death.

Shoots Wife and Self.

Fort Worth, March 10.—Frank Halliday, aged forty-two, a cab driver, fired twice at his wife at their home, then turned the weapon on himself, putting a bullet in his head. Both are likely to die. They had previously quarreled.

Priest Killed, Domestic Wounded.

Newark, N. J., March 10.—Father Erasim of St. Stanislaus' church was killed and a domestic was shot and wounded by three men as the result of a dispute over church matters.

Food For the Convalescent.

The convalescent's diet should never contain pork or veal, as both are difficult of digestion. Hot bread and pastry are also under the ban, as is every form of fried food. Otherwise eggs are good, as are tender broiled steak, cornstarch, rice and tapioca pudding and jellies, well made cocoa and good milk. Variety, it must be remembered, is essential to tempt the appetite.

For the Sewing Room.

A small rug made from a piece of thick carpet to fit the treadles of the sewing machine will keep the feet warm in winter when sewing on the machine, when they otherwise soon would become cold from the cold iron of the treadles. This is much easier on the feet, especially if they are inclined to be tender.

Vaseline Stains.

Vaseline stains on towels and clothing can be removed by soaking them in kerosene or alcohol before sending them to the laundry. Vaseline stains are obstinate if they are not removed in the right way. Washing the stains with soap and water sets them and makes it almost impossible to remove them.

An Old Idea.

Macaulay was not the first man to frame the famous image of the man of a new civilization standing amid the ruins of that which we know today. Long before he wrote of his traveler from New Zealand meditating upon London bridge Mrs. Barbauld had used the same image, with the difference that she applied it to Blackfriars bridge. An earlier reviewer had used it in an article published in 1767, we are told by an English commentator, and Horace Walpole says in one of his letters, "At last some curious traveler from Lima will visit England and give a description of the ruins of St. Paul's."

Poultry Market.

Eggs, 10
Hens, $3.00, $2.50 and $4.00
Fries, $2.50, $2.75 and $3.00
Broilers, $2.00 to $2.50
Geese, $3.50 to $4.00, unplucked
Ducks, $3.00 to $3.50
Guineas, $2.00 to $2.50
Roosters or old Democrats, $1.50 to $2.00

Demand is excellent for all kinds of poultry. Egg market dull and on the decline.

Election Ordinance.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Bryan:

That an election for City Officers, to wit: Marshal, Secretary and three members of the City Council, shall be held by the qualified voters of said City, at the County Court House in Bryan on the first Tuesday in April next, it being the sixth day of said month; and the presiding officer, together with such others as he may appoint, shall hold said election in accordance with the City Charter and Ordinances and the State Law governing elections.

Adopted by the City Council and approved by the Mayor this 4th day of March, 1909.

J. T. MALONEY, Mayor.
J. B. HINES, City Secy.

HIGH-O-ME.

That's the Way to Pronounce Hyomei.

The Money-Back Catarrh Cure. As doubt exists in the minds of many readers of the Eagle let us say that the above is the proper pronunciation of America's most wonderful catarrh cure.

E. J. Jenkins is the agent for Hyomei in Bryan and he will sell you an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and full instructions for use, for only $1.00.

And if it fails to cure acute or chronic catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, croup, hay fever or coughs and colds, he will give you your money back. The person who suffers from catarrh after such an offer as that, must like to snuffle, spit and wheeze, and be generally disgusting.

Read what Mr. Lowe, a respected citizen of Allegan, Mich., says of Hyomei: "I have used Hyomei for a case of nasal catarrh which had bothered me for a long time. I can say that Hyomei killed the germs of the disease and gave me the much sought and needed relief. From this experience I know Hyomei to be a reliable remedy and I give it the praise and recommendation that it deserves."—G. F. Lowe, R. F. D. No. 7, Allegan, Mich., September 19, 1908.
